

VOLUNTEER FACT SHEET

Be part of the biggest art event to take place this summer!

Fancy helping to build a giant domino rally in East London? As joint winners of the Bank of America Create Art Award, Station House Opera are creating a giant 10-mile breezeblock domino rally across East and South East London on 26 July, and are looking for volunteers to help us do it!

We're asking people, either in groups or individually, to give up a minimum of four hours to help lay out, topple and then collect up the blocks in three specific areas:

- In Newham for the launch
- In Victoria Park and Mile End Park where the domino line has its longest run (including over the distinctive Green Bridge at Mile End)
- For the final run through the Greenwich foot tunnel and into the grounds of the Old Royal Naval College

After marshalling and clearing away their section of the route, volunteers will be invited to join us for the finale in Greenwich at dusk, and then to a special party celebrating the end of the project. Sign up now to get your invite to the biggest after party in East London.

By participating in Dominoes you get

- Exclusive access to the Bank of America / CREATE09 after show party that evening
- A limited edition souvenir T-shirt
- The chance to play a key role in making this unique and ambitious one-off spectacle a reality!

What we need from you

- Commit to approximately four hours volunteering in the outdoors on Sunday 26th July
- Attend a briefing that day re: the schedule for the event and health & safety
- Work as a team and follow the instructions of a team leader (1 leader to every 5 volunteers)
- Lift and accurately place breezeblocks before, and marshal blocks during the run
- Interact in a friendly way with the public
- Lift and carefully return the breezeblocks to pallets, and shrink wrap for collection
- Wear suitable clothing and be prepared for all weathers (bring sun block and waterproofs)
- Wear hard wearing shoes with steel toe caps if possible
- Bring your own packed lunch (we will provide water)
- Be aware and responsible for your own health and safety regarding the lifting of blocks (each block weighs 5.2kg / 12.5lbs).

Volunteers must be aged 18 or over.
